SIOUX FALLS, S.D. — Minnesota State junior forward Luke Anderson has been named the North Central Conference men's basketball player of the week, it was announced Monday.

It's the third time in his career that Anderson has picked up the weekly award from the conference. Last week, Anderson averaged 24.7 points and 9.3 rebounds per game while shooting 46.2 percent from the field, including 47.1 percent from 3-point range, and 81.8 percent from the free-throw line.

Anderson was named the MVP of the Pepsi Tip-Off after scoring 46 points in victories against Glenville State and Wayne State. In a season-opening loss at Winona State Nov. 15, Anderson posted his third career double-double with 28 points and 16 rebounds.

The Mavericks play Friday and Saturday in the Northern State tournament at Aberdeen, S.D.
