

The Free Press

Saturday,
September 1, 2007

www.mankatofreepress.com

Sports

---

MSU volleyball squad splits

KANSAS CITY, MO. — The Minnesota State University volleyball team split its first two matches at the Rockhurst Classic Friday, defeating Wayne State (Neb.) 3-0 and losing to Washburn 3-2.

MSU defeated Wayne State 30-19, 30-26, 30-15. Amanda Beekman finished with nine kills and an attack percentage of .389 while Ashley Nachreiner had 16 kills with an attack percentage of .375. Stef Sandstrom handed out 26 assists and had a team-high 12 digs. Dana Ostertag had 11 digs.

Against Washburn, MSU lost 30-24, 24-30, 30-27, 26-30, 15-12.

Nachreiner slammed 28 kills and Beekman added 13. Danielle Zimmermann had 11 blocks, Allison Kunath had eight and Beekman had six.

Sandstrom delivered 56 assists and 16 digs. Ostertag had 17 digs.

MSU continues tournament play today in Kansas City.