

The Free Press

Sunday,
September 3, 2006

www.mankatofreepress.com

Sports

Mavs volleyball team sweeps

GRAND FORKS, N.D. — Minnesota State completed a four-game sweep of volleyball matches with a pair of wins Saturday at the Northern Extreme Fall Classic.

After defeating Upper Iowa and Minnesota State Moorhead on Friday, Minnesota State came back with victories against Mary University and Northern State on Saturday.

The 30-13, 30-27, 30-28 victory over Mary was highlighted by Stef Sandstrom's 30 assists. Megan Stroud and Ally Kwikkel each made 12 kills, while Mandy Reuter had 10 kills and 15 digs. Cassie Wolpern had 25 digs, and Ashley Nachreiner added 14 digs and three ace serves.

The Mavericks finished the tournament by defeating Northern State 30-22, 28-30, 30-24, 30-23. Sandstrom finished with 52 assists, with Nachreiner making 23 kills and six blocks.

Reuter had 33 digs, and Wolpern had 31.

Minnesota State (7-1) plays again Friday and Minnesota State's Stef Sandstrom (left) finished play Saturday with 82 assists in two matches. Ashley Nachreiner recorded 23 kills against Northern State.

Saturday at the Lady Blues Classic at Topeka, Kan.